

Palm Sunday: John 12:9-10

When the large crowd of the Jews learned that Jesus was there, they came, not only on account of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. So the chief priests made plans to put Lazarus to death as well, because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus. The next day the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" ...

Then, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a crowd with swords, and clubs who had come from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. His betrayer had arranged a signal with the, saying, "The man I shall kiss is the one; arrest him and lead him away securely. He came and immediately went over to him and said, "Rabbi." And he kissed him. At this they laid hands on him and arrested him.
